

Miller & Rhoads.

Miller & Rhoads.

Weather Forecast.—Fair.

The Newest of the Spring Dress Skirts

A Voile Skirt of good quality, trimmed with 24 rows of taffeta, which extend from the top to the bottom of the garment.

Reads as if it might be a very dressy skirt, doesn't it—and it is for $14.48.

Another Skirt just about the reverse in make-up of the first, comes in a fine quality Voile skirt, trimmed with 24 rows of taffeta, which extend from the top to the bottom of the garment.

Did you see the sample skirts of silk not that we had a couple of weeks ago? Beautiful, weren't they?

More of them reached us a few days ago. Very fine quality of Silk Net, made over a taffeta skirt $20.00, $25.00, $30.00 and $40.00. Prices vary according to elaborateness of trimming.

A good skirt at a low price comes in unlined Black and Gray Broadcloth, trimmed with many bands of taffeta—$7.98.

Only Suggestive of What We Have in Umbrellas and Parasols.

Parasols.

Women's 26-inch Silk and Linen Corolla Umbrellas, 8-ribbed and Paragon frame; they're equal to the ordinary dollar and a half kind, our price, $1.

Exquisite Parasols for $3.98. In solid colors and combinations of Chiffons, Tulle and Beau de Soles; they are exclusive and no two alike—worth fully $5 each.

Children's Parasols, all sizes, colors and styles, from $1.25 to $1.50.

You May Need These Flourings To-morrow. Get Them To-day.

500. yard for Nainsook and Swiss Flourings that are worth 50c. and $1.

The patterns are very desirable and the widths from 12 to 18 inches.

Nainsook and Swiss Insertings, 2 to 3-1/2 inches wide, from $1.50 to $2.00. There's fully 60 patterns—25c. yard.

Torchon Edges and Insertings, 2 to 4 inches wide, all patterns, 3-1-2c. per yard.

Miller & Rhoads

INSURANCE BILLS ARE POSTPONED

Sale Measure and Substitute Are Set for Final Hearing on April 27th.

A joint meeting of the Committees on Roads and General Laws was held yesterday morning for the purpose of considering the bills looking to the creation of a bureau of insurance and the adjustment of the present insurance laws in conformity with the new Constitution. A large number of insurance lawyers and agents were on hand to oppose the Canton substitute and to seek some modification of the original measure offered in the Senate by Mr. Sale, of Norfolk, and passed.

After some preliminary talk the committee fixed Monday, April 27th, at 4 o'clock P. M., as the time for beginning the final consideration of the measures, and Chairman Churchman announced that the committees would meet from day to day until a final decision had been reached. The Sale bill is said to be acceptable in the main to the insurance people, but they are unalterably opposed to the substitute prepared and offered by Colonel Canton.

Both the Sale bill and the substitute propose to create a bureau of insurance, and fix the salary of the commissioner at $2,500. The new department is to be under the general supervision of the State Corporation Commission. But when the two measures leave this subject they do not vote of each other, the Canton substitute being much more drastic in its general provisions than the Sale bill. The former, for instance, gives the commissioner much broader powers, and provides more rigidly against the creation and operation of "wildcat" companies.

Among those who were present yesterday to represent the insurance interests before the committee were: Hon. Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, president of the Petersburg Savings and Insurance Company; Mr. L. W. Childrey, of Norfolk, vice president; and Mr. J. W. Childrey, of Norfolk, secretary.

MAKE IT OVER.

Change of Diet Will Build an Entire New Body.

People can be entirely made over by a scientific course of food and drink. Even old, chronic diseases and hereditary ailments are cured by the wonderful processes of reconstruction under modern methods of feeding.

An illustration is worth attention. A lady writes: "I feel this letter will exceed all reasonable bounds, but how can I be brief when I have so much to tell. First about myself. I inherited nervous headaches and half invalid condition. I had to give up tea and coffee, but some months ago a friend insisted that I start on Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts breakfast food."

"I prepared the coffee myself, carefully according to directions on the package, and used good cream. The first cup seemed the most delicious and satisfying I had ever drunk. I drank it, and I drank it again. I was impressed with the idea that it was just what my starved nerves demanded. So I used Postum and Grape-Nuts with good rich cream. Now for about four weeks I have been free from my headaches and nervousness, and am feeling unusually strong and well. There has also been a marked change in my appearance. I am 47 years old and my hair is very white, but the haggard, care-worn look is entirely gone from my face. My cheeks and body have filled out, the face shows a fine color, flesh firm and smooth, eyes clear and lips red. My friends comment on the change and say I look 15 years younger. They are incredulous when I tell them that skillful feeding on scientific food like Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee has wrought the change."

"Now as to my son, 24 years old, who has been afflicted with epilepsy from infancy. I hardly dare tell them the facts, but he is here in the body to prove them. He has had the best treatment in this country all without perceptible benefit. His memory was gradually growing weaker. The time I started on Postum and Grape-Nuts he started also, and the change in him has been so wonderful that I can hardly describe it. Now he carries himself erect instead of in his former careless way, his eyes are clear and bright, and best of all his memory is growing stronger and stronger every day until I am fairly overcome with astonishment. He shows a decision of character quite unusual, and has lately expressed a strong desire to study. I dare not say what hopes his improvement has raised."

"It is perfectly evident that bodies and brains can be rebuilt by skillful feeding and that means Postum Food Coffee and Grape-Nuts. Write for facts to Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich."

of Norfolk, president of the Association of State Agents; Hon. Epps Hinton, Jr., general counsel for the companies; Captain Cunningham Hall, Messrs. Robert Lecky, Jr., John W. Gordon, Robert Lee Traylor, and others. The hearings on the bill promise to be very lively when they are gone into.

WANTED A LICENSE But the Young Man Had No One to Bear Witness for Him.

A tall, athletic young man, who did not give his name, applied to Deputy Clerk Lawton Crutchfield, of the Hustings Court, yesterday afternoon for a license to marry some young lady. He did not disclose who she was, and as he had no one to identify him or testify to the girl's age, he failed to secure the license. Manager George Bargamin, at J. M. Campbell's, just across from the City Hall, said last night that a stranger answering the above description had requested him to go over and testify to the girl's age, but as he knew neither party, he declined.

SMALL DOCKET IN POLICE COURT

Apostilo Satellonado Was Fined for Being Drunk and Disorderly.

Apostilo Satellonado, a Syrian, was before Justice John yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5 and placed under bonds for ten days.

George H. Taylor was charged with beating his wife, and the charge was sustained to the extent of $10 and thirty days' security.

Sadie Polham cursed and abused Ida Price, which cost her $2.50. Henrietta Jackson and Emma Hinchman paid $2.50 each for being disorderly on the street.

Martha Ann Taylor, for being disorderly on the street, paid $5 and was sent down for ten days.

Peter Lenzi was charged with keeping open on Sunday. He will be heard today.

Stephen Brodnax was sent down for thirty days for taking some coal from the Chesapeake and Ohio.

George Shuman was fined $10 for being disorderly at No. 2418 East Main Street.

MR. MORGAN ENTERTAINS

Gives a Dinner in Honor of Mr. Laffan and President Spencer.

A delightful entertainment was given at the Commonwealth Club Thursday night by Mr. S. T. Morgan, president of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, to Mr. W. M. Laffan, editor of the New York Sun, and Mr. Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern Railway. Dinner was served about 9 o'clock. Mr. Morgan presided, with Governor Montague on his right and Mr. Laffan on his left, while Mr. John P. Branch occupied the other end of the table, flanked by Mr. Spencer and Lieutenant-Governor Willard. There were about sixteen or eighteen other gentlemen well known in the business circles of Richmond present, among them Messrs. Alexander Hamilton, J. Taylor Elyson, John P. Ryan, R. S. Boshier, S. Dabney Greenhaw, Joseph Bryan, George W. Stevens, John S. Williams, S. W. Travers, John A. Coker, James N. Boyd, W. Gordon McCabe, and Dr. J. Allison Hodges.

It was nearly 1 o'clock before the beautiful dinner had been finished and all the speeches made.

Mr. Spencer was in Washington early yesterday morning and Mr. Laffan returned to New York by the Seaboard train in the afternoon.

WON'T HELP CONSUMER

Coal Dealers Discuss the Bill of Mr. Edwards.

Coal dealers of Richmond are of opinion that should the Edwards bill pass, which has for its object the giving of a long instead of a short ton of coal, its effect would be to raise the price of coal, so as to make the consumer pay the difference. They contend that owing to the hills in Richmond two mules would be required for delivery instead of one, and that the additional cost would have to be borne by the purchaser.

Mrs. Shield Better. The many friends of Mrs. A. P. Shield, of No. 599 North Sixth Street, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering rapidly, after a long struggle with typhoid fever.

CANDIDATE IN MANCHESTER

Judge Clifton Will Run for State Senate.

MEETING OF THE BOARD

Long Line of Routine Work—Death of an Infant—Benefit Performance. Bazaar at Leader Hall—Personal and General.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch.

Judge Clifton has, at the solicitation of a large number of his friends in Chesterfield, Devonshire and Cheshire counties and the city of Manchester, consented to allow himself to become a candidate for the State Senate from this district at the next election.

There will probably be no opposition to Judge Clifton, as he is universally liked and is considered a most competent man for his responsible position. He is now judge of the County Court of Chesterfield and city attorney of Manchester. His opinions have always been able and much sought, and he has been thrown into contact almost daily with the people of both Chesterfield county and the city of Manchester, and is personally known to most of them. He is also popular in Bowland and Gouthwaite.

Judge Clifton said last night that it was rather early to announce himself, but that he had decided to become a candidate at the proper time.

Some days ago Mr. R. L. Rives, a prominent young attorney, said he would be a candidate if Judge Clifton did not announce himself. This decision on the part of Judge Clifton puts Mr. Rives out of the question, according to his own statement.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN. Only routine business was transacted by the Board of Aldermen last night. Most of the work was such as came up from the lower branch.

The resolution adopted by the City Assembly, instructing the Street Committee to divide the appropriation for permanent street improvement into four equal parts, to be apportioned among the four wards, was concurred in.

The City Engineer's report for the month of March showed that the sum of $173.87 had been spent. The petition of Ashby Rawlings for $2,000 damages for injuries sustained in falling into an arseway, which was not granted by the City Assembly, was referred to the Board.

The report of Superintendent Allen, of Mayor Cemetery, showed that the expenses of the month had been $140.47; the receipts, $176.88.

The resolution appropriating $1,400 for a new house for the keeper of Mayor Cemetery, and referring the same to the Finance Committee, was concurred in.

The ordinance providing that carts and wagons heavily loaded may not use unpaved roadways was concurred in, and the matter now goes to the Mayor.

Mr. Abbott suggested that some points on the street leading from the City Hall to the street committee, said that a Subcommittee on Streets had visited the scene and had deemed it inadvisable to make such repairs.

Mr. Abbott then made a motion requesting the Street Committee to look further into the matter, which was adopted.

MR. BARRETT'S RESOLUTION. Mr. Barrett presented a joint resolution creating a committee of three, one from the Board and two from the Assembly, to confer with the tax collector in regard to the collection of taxes in all cases in which there may be differences of opinion.

He explained his motion by saying that with a consultation committee the delinquent tax collector could get along with the delinquents better than at present.

Mr. Abbott disagreed with Mr. Barrett and thought it unnecessary to form such a committee, as the city had men employed for such business.

The resolution was not adopted and the Board adjourned.

These present were Messrs. Pardon, Abbott, Patram, Barrett, Hooker and Rudd.

MR. AND MRS. CARTER RETURN. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carter have returned from their wedding tour and are now at home at No. 101 Porter Street.

VISITING RELATIVES. Mr. Shaw, wife and daughter, from Hinton, Va., are visiting Mr. J. W. Barrett, No. 1314 McDonough Street.

DEATH OF AN INFANT. Warren Elmore Cannady, the infant child of Mr. J. T. Cannady, died at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, corner of South and Fairbridge Streets. The child's mother died two months ago. The funeral will be from the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

RAZAAR AT LEADER HALL. The bazaar to be given at Leader Hall next week by the Daughters of Liberty, the Olympia Club will be a big success. Amusement features will be introduced every night.

PAINFULLY BURNED. Mrs. William Fowkes, of No. 207 East Eleventh Street, was painfully burned

It's the Value,

THE satisfaction our customers have been receiving, that's the basis of our big success as the dressers of dressy men. You won't find such clothes as these anywhere else in town. They're HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX made. The perfect tailoring which these clothes get makes them equal to the best custom work. We're ready to show you any time our

$15.00

Special Men's Suits.

They make their own argument. The fabrics are very nobby; the cuts are made in such a way that they fit and stay fit. They are the most stylish, snappy suits to be found anywhere.

OTHER SPRING AND SUMMER SUITS, including the "Varsity"—the right suits for you—at $10.00 to $18.00 to $25.00 to $35.00

$2.98

Boys' Special Suits.

Norfolk, Blouse and Double Breasted Knee-Pants Suits, that sold up to $4 and $4.50, will be offered at $2.98.

An air-ship will be given with every suit. This is the great twentieth century toy.

Boys' Knee-Pants that sold up to 75c, to-day at.....39c

Jacobs & Levy,

705 E. Broad Street.

If we please you, tell others; if not, tell us.

about the hands, yesterday morning in her efforts to put out a fire that had caught in a basket of clothes. Her burns were not serious.

SQUIRE CHEATHAM'S COURT. Jack Shepperson was fined $5 for beating Robert Thomas.

Alexander Miller and Hardy Branch, colored, were married in court. Miller had been charged with failure to keep his promise of marriage.

STREET COMMITTEE. The Street Committee will meet at 8 o'clock to-night in special session to consider certain street improvements and in application from the Passenger and Power Company for the privilege of keeping a car in the city all night.

A NOBLE OUTCAST. Tom Charles and the "Ideal Marymagners" presented this pretty drama at Leader Hall last night for the benefit of the Daughters of Liberty. A good sized audience enjoyed the production, which, but for long walls between acts, was exceedingly well done.

FOUR DROWNED WHILE HUNDREDS LOOKED ON

(By Associated Press.) CLINTON, IND., April 17.—Ora Edgington, his wife and their three small children, with two neighbors' boys, started to cross the Wabash bottoms this morning in the face of a warning of danger. The three Edgington children and William Dudley were drowned. The party got out of the road and were soon beyond their depths. Hundreds of people witnessed the disaster, but a relief boat was late in reaching the struggling people. Edgington escaped on a horse, and his wife was rescued by William Jacks, twelve years old. Three of the bodies were recovered.

THREE ATTEMPTS

Two Persons Succeeded in Killing Themselves in Washington.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 17.—Three attempts at suicide, of which two resulted fatally, occurred in this city last night and to-day.

William P. Harnest, a local drummer for a grocery and commission store, ended his life by swallowing laudanum.

Shortly after midnight Miss Nellie Rusten, keeper of a boardinghouse, near the Capitol, drank part of a bottle of carbolic acid and hurried herself down to the night of steps at her home. She probably will recover.

Question of Interest. The questions raised will prove of interest to lawyers everywhere and to the general public by reason of their application to this case, in which such an unusual and unexpected result was reached. The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

Hon. W. H. Box, a member of the House and of the committee on the Constitution, stated last night that the constitutional provision for the removal of judges was taken from the old Constitution, and that the words "for cause" were added. The provision for removal was first inserted in the Constitution of 1850-54, and has been incorporated in every Constitution since that date, the words for cause having been added by the last preceding convention.

The committee will do next Thursday cannot be foretold, nor can the members of that committee themselves say.

ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

William H. Harnest Swallows Dose of Laudanum.

HE WAS A VIRGINIAN

No Cause Known for His Rash Act Though He Left a Pathetic Note to His Wife Telling Her His Intention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17.—William H. Harnest, a Virginian, and a drummer employed by the Washington Wholesale Grocery Company, 1202 B Street, Northwest, has ended his life by swallowing the contents of a bottle containing laudanum. The act was committed while at the Howardward Hotel Mission, No. 119 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, some time between midnight last night and 8:30 o'clock this morning. Harnest died at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mounted Policeman Galpin was notified of Harnest's condition. He removed the ambulance from the Emergency Hospital, and the unconscious man was hurriedly removed to that institution. All efforts to resuscitate him proved abortive, and he died, as stated.

Harnest was a resident of Virginia, and was married about one year ago. He removed to this city with his bride and took rooms at a boarding house conducted by Mrs. M. Harnest, No. 401 Fourth Street, Northwest, where they have since resided. The man having been employed by the Washington company named. He has always been regarded as an efficient agent by his employer. He left a letter to his wife, which he neglected to sign. It was written on one-half of sheet of paper, with a lead pencil between the lines.

NOTE TO MRS. HARNEST. The message was found on a chair in the room at the mission, and was taken possession by the police. It reads: My Own Darling Wife: Forgive your poor unfortunates for the awful thing of taking his miserable life. My darling, if it was not for leaving you I would not care, but you are so sweet that it breaks my heart to leave you. Oh, my darling little wife, forgive me for this awful sorrow I bring on you, but I cannot live and see you in so much trouble.

No reason can be assigned for Harnest's act. Mrs. Harnest and his employers each said that he had never appeared to be despondent. He was at work as usual yesterday, part of the day, appearing at the store in an apparently intoxicated condition about noon, and after remaining there for an hour or two left, but did not state where he was going. He did, however, send a note to his wife by a messenger about noon conveying the information that he would not be home last night, but did not assign any reason for his intended absence.

Mrs. Harnest remained up all night waiting for him, and was very much over- come when informed this morning that her husband had attempted suicide. He called at the mission a few minutes before midnight and asked for lodging, and was assigned to a room on the second floor. The lodgers are in the habit of leaving their rooms at an early hour each morning, but Harnest failed to put in an appearance, and shortly after 8 o'clock Captain Haslam, who is in charge of the mission, went to the room occupied by Harnest, and found him lying on the floor, apparently dead. He called for a doctor, and the body was removed to the morgue.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an empty vial lying on the floor beside the bed, which on investigation was found to have contained the poison which Harnest had used.

Mrs. Harnest's landlady, told a Star reporter this morning that Harnest owed her a bill of $80, and that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died. She said that she had been told that he had asked him for it several times before he died.

COULDN'T AROUSE HIM. Captain Haslam concluded that all was not right, and he opened the door, which was not locked, and entered the room. He called to the man, but he did not respond when an attempt was made to arouse him. Haslam was about to leave the room to summon the police when his attention was called to an